It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

In accordance with the parties stipulation filed at ECF No. 40 and the Court's Order Regarding Restitution filed at ECF No. 41. Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $27,000 pursuant to the title 18 United States code section 2259. Refer to separate restitution order.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The discussion of this program is not intended to be part of the Court's decision on whether to sentence the defendant to incarceration or on the length of the term to be imposed, but is merely to provide an indication of possible opportunities for rehabilitation within the prison system.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Justyn Tomblyn, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 60 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 20 years under the following terms and conditions:

The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.

This condition does not prohibit the defendant from possessing materials solely because they are necessary to, and used for, a collateral attack, nor does it prohibit the defendant from possessing materials prepared and used for the purposes of the defendant's Court-mandated sex offender treatment, when the defendant's treatment provider or the Probation Officer has approved of the defendant's possession of the material in advance.

This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., whom the defendant must interact with in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
14. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer or be employed in any capacity by a business or organization that causes the defendant to regularly contact persons under the age of 18.
15. The defendant shall not own, use or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency, nor shall the defendant open or maintain a post office box, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
16. The defendant shall not view or possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting or describing child erotica, which is defined as a person under the age of 18 in partial or complete state of nudity, or in sexually provocative poses, viewed for the purpose of sexual arousal.

Employment

17. The defendant's employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least ten (10) days prior to any scheduled change.
18. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer or be employed in any capacity by a business whose principal product is the production or selling of materials depicting or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2).

Residence
